Day 1

COVID-19 Update

Some of the events, experiences, and attractions listed here may be offering modified services at this time.

Please note that all hotels, events, experiences and attractions are following Alberta Health Services COVID health and safety guidelines.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, please consult the provincial and national regulations before planning a visit to Edmonton.

Welcome to Edmonton!

Welcome to Edmonton. We throw axes for fun, barbecue in blizzards, run with dinosaurs and camp with bison. From the continent's first, biggest and wildest Fringe Theatre Festival to a shopping mall that at one time had more submarines than the Canadian navy, Edmontonians have never been afraid to do things a little differently. Normal is for the other guys.

Why is Edmonton different? There are theories. Maybe it's our northern home, where for years we've learned to make our own fun. Perhaps it's our legacy of entrepreneurs dreaming up oddities: deep freezer races, winter patios and surfing indoors. Perhaps it's the foundation of natural beauty, from which we've built something great. Take your taste buds on a journey to some of the hottest craft beer taprooms and hyper-local bistros, experience the glory of the northern lights from our dark sky preserves, or cruise through North America's largest stretch of urban parkland. There's a uniqueness to how Edmontonians do ordinary things, and we welcome you to be a part of it.

Visit the Art Gallery of Alberta

With a swirling exterior of zinc, glass and steel inspired by Edmonton's unique northern environment – its silver colour reflect the shimmering, multi-coloured Aurora Borealis – the Art Gallery of Alberta exudes creativity even from the outside. Los Angeles-based architect Randall Stout's stunning structure has put a modern spin on Alberta's oldest cultural institution. With a collection of over 6,000 objects, the AGA is a Western Canadian centre of excellence for visual arts offering original contemporary and historical exhibitions from Alberta, across Canada and around the world throughout three bright and airy floors of viewing space.

Lunch at Drunken Ox Sober Cat (DOSC)

A craft steak restaurant, cocktail bar and cafe all under one roof. Our inspiration is shown in the story our menu items tell. Our artisanal menu showcases the pride our entire team has of our Edmonton city. Our respect for quality food is displayed by focusing on the tip to tail philosophy, where we use all parts of the animal. Each plate is made to order to offer the best quality with the freshest ingredients. Our culinary team strive to be masters and want to be responsible for all parts of the process of getting your unmasked meal to your table. We have our own in-house butchery and can offer the most mouth-watering flavours with dry aging our own beef.

Explore ᐃᓄᓄ (îᑎîᑦᑦ) River Lot 11∞ Edmonton's Indigenous Art Park

Explore Edmonton's Indigenous Art Park complete with breath taking views of the river valley and downtown Edmonton. It is called îᑎîᑦᑦ (EE-nu), which in Cree means "I am of the Earth"— Indigenous peoples are very connected to land, so this name is very fitting. îᑎîᑦᑦ sits on the historic river lot which was originally owned by Joseph MacDonald, a Métis man.

The park was created in partnership with the City of Edmonton, Confederacy of Treaty No. 6 First Nations, Métis Nation of Alberta, the Edmonton Arts Council and Indigenous artists. Here you will find six art installations, created by Indigenous artists who were asked to create pieces "inspired by this land".

When you first arrive, you see the Treaty Acknowledgement and îᑎîᑦᑦ welcome rocks. The rocks tell the story of the Cree word îᑎîᑦᑦ (EE-nu), an ode to the ancestral lands of the Indigenous groups who were here prior, primarily the Cree.

Go ice skating

If one of your favourite sounds isn't of a skate gliding across the ice, then you're living your whole life wrong. Breathe in the crisp air as you drift across a glassy-smooth sheet and watch the snow spray as you skid to a stop. Hawrelak Park (9330 Groat Road), the Victoria Park Oval (12130 River Valley Road), and Rundle Park (113 Avenue and 29 Street), are just a few of the city's outdoor skating rinks (Or ODR's as we like to call them).

Day 2

Breakfast at Pip

Pip, located in the heart of Old Strathcona, is an intimate 28-seat restaurant offering elevated comfort food for dinner and brunch seven days a week. Brunch offerings range from light and healthy to the indulgent classics.

Explore Whyte Avenue

Anchored by the funky, bohemian spirit of Whyte Avenue, historic buildings blend with youthful exuberance to make Old Strathcona one of Edmonton's trendiest neighbourhoods. Find the perfect outfit at a chic boutique, sip and socialize on a summer patio and enjoy world-class festivals, entertainment, and live music.

*Be sure to stop by the smallest distillery in North America, Strathcona Spirits, for a tour!

Dinner at Biera

Welcome to a brewpub with a twist. Nestled into Ritchie Market, Biera ditches traditional pub food for contemporary shared plates, paired with freshly brewed beer by Blind Enthusiasm. Chef Christine Sandford serves up some seriously inventive dishes, with a mix of Prairie and European influences. Her culinary background not only includes In de Wulf, a Michelin-starred restaurant in Belgium, and De Superette in Gent, but also includes the much beloved Culina in Edmonton.

Explore 104th Street & Canada's only Neon Sign Museum

A sophisticated neighbourhood in the heart of Edmonton that offers an urban atmosphere in which you can admire the arts, fine food, and unique boutiques. A distinguished destination to live, work and play, 4th Street Promenade, as its often called, is becoming one of the most exciting areas in Edmonton.

The Neon Sign Museum, the first of its kind in Canada, features a collection of functional historic signs that tell a story about Edmonton's neon past.

The Museum is outdoors and is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. No admission is required.
