

EDMONTON'S CULTURAL SCENE

WE THROW AXES FOR FUN,
BARBECUE IN BLIZZARDS
AND CAMP WITH BISON.

Welcome to Edmonton! From the continent's first, biggest and wildest Fringe Theatre Festival to a shopping mall that at one time had more submarines than the Canadian navy, Edmontonians have never been afraid to do things a little differently. Normal is for the other guys!

Fort Edmonton Park:

Fort Edmonton Park takes you on an iconic journey through the city's incredibly rich history, from Fur Trade to the Roaring Twenties. With numerous special events, theatre shows and live performances, every journey to Fort Edmonton Park is sure to be unforgettable.

Royal Alberta Museum:

Construction of the new building is complete, and museum staff are working hard behind-the-scenes to prepare the galleries, as well as outfit the cafe, gift shop and theatre. Once complete, the new RAM will be the largest museum in western Canada, as well as an integral part of Edmonton's Arts District.

Legislative Assembly of Alberta:

Known to Edmontonians as "the Leg", the Alberta Legislature Building is a marvel of marble pillars and carved oak, beautiful Beaux-Arts architecture and stunning grounds. Set atop the banks of the North Saskatchewan River, this is where Canadian Premiers and political parties debate to make history.
