

SHOPPING IN EDMONTON

WEST EDMONTON MALL

Welcome to West Edmonton Mall, the Mt. Everest of shopping and indoor entertainment in North America. This destination spans the equivalent of 48 city blocks and is part entertainment complex, part shopping and dining destination. With so much to offer, you can easily spend a full day (and night) shopping, playing, and indulging. The mall is as big-spirited as all of Alberta, making it an experience like no other!

WHYTE AVENUE & OLD STRATHCONA

Take in the bohemian spirit of Whyte Avenue as you shop one of Edmonton's most popular districts! Visit the Old Strathcona Farmers' Market on Saturdays for locally sourced produce and handcrafted items. Then make your way to Bamboo Ballroom for the latest in trendy women's fashion and unique home decor. If you're a footwear fanatic, check out Gravitypop's extensive collection. And that's just the start!

DOWNTOWN & 124 STREET

Beginning just west of downtown, where Jasper Avenue turns north into 124th Street, is one of the best areas in Edmonton to take a stroll and discover cool spots to eat, art galleries, antique stores, fashion boutiques, and quaint coffee houses. Then head into the heart of downtown to 4th Street Promenade. Here, you'll find more local shopping, iconic restaurants, and historic buildings.
